Open Access Award for Darwin Bus Service

The Darwin Bus Service will receive an award for “going above and beyond” in assisting Guide Dogs SA.NT clients who use guide dogs.

Christina Angus, of Guide Dogs SA.NT, said the bus service had been nominated by Darwin university student Michelle Johnson, a user of the service with her guide dog Troy.

Mrs Angus said the drivers had been particularly considerate of Miss Johnson’s needs and also ensured that extra room was provided beside her for Troy.

“Public transport is essential when you are blind or vision impaired. It’s wonderful that the Darwin Bus Service is able to assist our clients in such a positive way.”
